

ARTICLESARTICLE 1 – THE CONSTITUTION*1.01 Powers of the Council

The Council will exercise all its powers and duties in accordance with the law and this Constitution.

1.02 The Constitution

This Constitution, including all its schedules and appendices, is the Constitution of the Tendring District Council.

1.03 Purpose of the Constitution

The purpose of the Constitution is to:

- 1 Provide key elements of the Council's overall governance arrangements;
- 2 Enable decisions to be taken efficiently and effectively;
- 3 Create an effective means of holding decision-makers to public account;
- 4 Enable the Council to provide clear leadership to the community, working in partnership with the local community, businesses and other organisations for the long term well-being of the District;
- 5 Support the involvement of the local community in the process of local authority decision making;
- 6 Ensure that no one will review, or scrutinise, a decision in which they were directly involved;
- 7 Help Councillors represent their residents more effectively;
- 8 Ensure that those responsible for decision making are clearly identifiable to local people and that they explain the reasons for their decisions; and
- 9 Provide the framework and structure in which cost effective quality services to the community are delivered.

1.04 Interpretation and Review of the Constitution

Any interpretation of the Constitution must have regard to the purposes stated above.

Part 2 – ARTICLES

ARTICLE 1 – THE CONSTITUTION

Where the context allows, words in the Constitution indicating one gender include both genders. Unless otherwise indicated, where a “day” is referred to, this will mean a “working day” and will not include weekends or Bank Holidays.

The Council will monitor and evaluate the operation of the Constitution as set out in Article 15.

ARTICLE 2 – MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL2.01 Composition and Eligibility*(a) Composition

The Council comprises 60 members, otherwise called Councillors. One or more Councillors will be elected by the voters in Wards in accordance with a scheme drawn up by the Local Government Boundary Commission for England, and approved by the Secretary of State.

(b) Eligibility

Only registered voters of the District, or those living or working there, will be eligible to hold the office of Councillor.

2.02 Election and Terms of Councillors

The regular election of Councillors will be held on the first Thursday in May every four years beginning in 2003. The terms of office of Councillors will start on the fourth day after being elected and will finish on the fourth day after the date of the next regular elections.

(ii) Members are entitled to receive information from Officers in a timely manner to reasonable requests for the purposes of undertaking their role as Ward Councillors, decision makers and performing functions, such as overview and scrutiny (this is referred to as the common law ‘need to know’ principle). Under common law principles councillors have the right to access information held by their authority where it is reasonably necessary to enable the member to properly perform their duties as a councillor.

However, if the member’s motive for seeing documents is indirect, improper or ulterior, this may be raised as a bar to their entitlement. Members are not, therefore, allowed to go off on ‘fishing expeditions’ through their council’s documents. If a councillor is a member of a particular committee or sub-committee then they have the right to inspect documents relating to the business of that committee or sub-committee. If not a member of that committee or sub-committee, the councillor would have to show good cause why sight of them is necessary to perform their duties (See R V Clerk to Lancashire Police Committee ex parte Hook [1980] Q.B. 603).

(iii) Councillors will not make public information that is confidential or exempt without the consent of the Council or divulge information given in confidence to anyone other than a Councillor or officer entitled to know it.

(iv) For these purposes “confidential” and “exempt” information is defined in the Access to Information Rules in Part 5 of this Constitution.

2.04 Conduct

Councillors will at all times observe the Members’ Code of Conduct and protocols set out in Part 6 of this Constitution.

Councillors are also expected to comply with the requirements of any risk assessments issued by the Council in performance of their functions
